Please list some topics you would like to hear me discuss.

- Contracts
- Practical suggestions for elders on how they can work better together. Ways to shepherd the congregation. How to get past the past.
- Criticism, conflict resolution, pain, finances, lessons/stories from growing up
- Family systems, running
- 1) Growing the church in the face of apathy / disinterest, 2) Why should I believe? {Is it the same now as 2000 years ago?} 3) What does 'husband of one wife' mean and why is it there? 4) What is a Presbyter, Shepherd, Pastor, Bishop, Overseer in the church and how do these play against the concept of an Elder? 5) Acapella versus instrumentally augmented music - salvation or fellowship issue - how does this effect church unity? 6) Care for widows, orphans, the disabled, those who are economically distressed. 7) Gambling is something we accept that we should refrain from, is investing in the stock market gambling?

- unique approaches to leadership
- Best practices, Different Shepherding Models
- Relationships
- Conflict resolution. Who is in charge of the church. Elders as shepherds.
- You are excellent in calling attention to the real life / day to day challenges and teaching proper responses that are in line with God's word - Keep doing what you do best
- What to do to prevent hidden agendas in meetings
- How to have beneficial and honest conflict
- Assuring unity before a meeting breaks up so that there is a unified leadership
- Providing peaceful leadership without an eldership
- The importance of intentional overcommunication
- Developing long term plans for leadership development, continuous evangelistic outreach, measurable spiritual growth, family spirituality that saves our children
- Putting prayer in the forefront of our lives
- Sorry, I got carried away.
- Challenges to building up & keeping on keeping on
- Handling internal church conflicts
- Improving Bible study skills
- Elder-Pastor; Elder-Congregation; Pastor-Congregation; Moving; Starting new work; Involvement;
- Church. Contribution.
- Your stories and experiences.
- Working with elders; Moving to a new congregation, working with staff; how to receive an increase in salary.
- I think your experience with resolving conflict in the midst of the Church's family system is paramount and needs to be shared far and wide. Also a lot of the material in your new shepherd's orientation could be adapted for general members under the umbrella of emotional and spiritual health and well being. I also think a google form where people can submit questions that you could select and answer on the podcast would be helpful and information.

- How much should we pay a preacher? What should a preacher's time off be? What consists of doctrinal preaching? How do we go about appointing elders for the first time? What are the church's greatest challenges in the 21st century? Why be a preacher? Preacher, elders, and deacons relationships.
- Hints for growing old good / Dealing with cranky people / Controlling emotions
- Preacher-elder relations; conflict resolution; spiritual emphasis in the eldership as opposed to business board model
- Christ for today
- Anything shepherding, leadership, families, congregational health, and casting a vision for the church of the last 3 quarters of the 21st century
- Marriage, Divorce and Remarriage and Importance of placing membership
- Things we deal with as churches, ministers, elders
- Dealing with older, small congregations with no small children and not enough room or people to teach classes (preacher teaches only class, and brings the sermon). Most everyone is dealing with chronic health problems.
- Grief, Children who drift from God's truth, Teaching morality according to scripture

What other suggestions do you have?

- Make it short
- Why do churches split; can it be prevented; and should it? Dealing with small but highly visible/vocal segments of society, i.e. LGBTQIA+ folks. How to deal with fellowship/disfellowship (excommunication) among individuals / between congregations. With shrinking congregation sizes, smaller numbers of individuals entering ministry careers, where do our future preachers come from? What about women's participation in services, leading parts of public worship, serving as ministers, deacons or elders - scripture, tradition, and pressure from today's society, perhaps as embodied in secular education? Where does the idea of a 'sanctuary' come from within the church, are buildings or parts of buildings consecrated?
- Sounds like a good idea to me.
- Practical applications for a better life

- Yours would likely be lost in a sea of others and a poor use of time
- Balance
- Let's do this
- This is such a good idea and a wonderful way for you to help the church worldwide.
- I want good sermon
- Get it going.
- I think interviews could be helpful on some topics.
- Whatever you choose.
- 15 minutes is too short. Would much prefer at least 30 minutes. Interviews would be better, too, but okay if you don't.
- Be biblical. Be practical. People need practical tips for everyday living.
- Love the idea, love the time format. Would definitely tune in
- I like the idea of a shorter podcast. Sometimes I have trouble finding the time to listen to long ones and never get back to finish them. Of course I don't run barefooted either. Thanks for considering this Jerry.
- Best practices of how to function and move a church forward that has lost its eldership
- I will have to think about this before making any suggestions
- Thanks!
